DAUGHTER OF GILDER IS BRIDE OF BANKER

New York, May 19.—The marriage of Miss Dorothea de Kay Gilder, daughter of the late Richard Watson Gilder, poet and editor of the Century magazine, to Dallas D. L. McGrew, son of Rev. and Mrs. George H. McGrew of Silver Spring and Baltimore, Md., took place today at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard Watson Gilder, of No. 24 Gramercy Park.

Owing to illness in the family the wedding was attended by the members of the immediate families only. Miss Gilder's father, the late Richard Watson Gilder, was known widely as a poet. She is a sister of the Misses Francesca de K. and Rosamond de K. Gilder, and of Mrs. George de Kay Gilder. The late Miss Jeannette Gilder, authoress, was her aunt. Through her mother, who was Miss Helen de Kay, she is related to the De Kay family.

A few years ago Miss Gilder made an excursion into the world of the stage. Her first part was that of a flower girl in "Kismet," with Otis Skinner. Later she was in "Egypt," a play by Edward Sheldon, in which Miss Margaret Anglin was the star. She was also for a short time with E. H. Sothern and Miss Julia Marlowe. On the program she appeared as Miss Dorothea Coleman.

Mr. McGrew is connected with the International Banking Corporation and lives in New York. He was for a time on the staff of the Boston Journal.

WARN LONDON'S POOR AGAINST EXTRAVAGANCE

By United Press.

London, May 19.—Government bill posters, who have plastered London with enormous signs urging the people to economize, have no respect for localities. In one of the most squalid and poverty stricken districts of London the following advice appears in letters five feet high:

"Don't use a motor car for pleasure. Don't buy superfluous clothing. Don't employ more servants than you need." In fashionable West End districts the posters are conspicuous for their absence. Trafalgar Square, near the heart of the official district, however, is liberally splashed with the warnings.

PRESIDENT AUSTIN DELIVERS GRADUATING ADDRESSES

President G. W. Austin, of the O. C. W., delivered the graduating address to the seniors of the Verdun high school last night. This morning he went to Bray, Okla., where he spoke to the graduates at 10:30 o'clock, and tonight at 8 o'clock he will make a similar address at Wauwaka.

Good News Grape-Nuts

This famous pure food makes up for a frequent lack of certain nourishing elements in the daily diet, which make for mental and physical development.

These elements—the vital mineral phosphates—are found in abundance in the whole wheat and malted barley flours, from which Grape-Nuts is made. All the food values of these grains are retained in splendid proportions in this food.

Grape-Nuts comes from the wax-sealed package—crisp, delicious, ready to eat, and remarkably easy of digestion.

ASSEMBLY TO SELECT OFFICERS

Choice of Moderator to Succeed Dr. Stevenson is Subject of Interest to Presbyterians; Two Candidates Prominent

By United Press.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 19.—One of the subjects of greatest interest at the 128th General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, which is meeting here today, is who will be the next moderator to succeed the incumbent, the Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, president of Princeton Theological Seminary.

Not for years has there been so little discussion before an assembly of candidates. Usually the politics begin as early as the preceding January. But within six weeks of the approaching assembly there were only two men who were actually known to have their "hats in the ring."

One is the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Palmer, pastor of Park church, Columbus, Ohio, who was a defeated candidate a few years ago. The other is the Rev. Dr. John A. Marquis, president of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Both are well known throughout the church.

It seems that geographically each has a good chance, as there is a sentiment to let the honor go to a man from the middle west.

Dr. Palmer was defeated at the Atlanta assembly, and Dr. Marquis refused to let his friends nominate him at Chicago, as they desired, so as to leave the field clear for the Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander, of Pittsburg, who was elected.

It is possible that another candidate may be the Rev. Dr. Cornelius M. Steffens, president of Dubuque College and Theological Seminary, who was one of the defeated candidates at Rochester. But many believe that Dr. Steffens would not consent to run against a man in his own synod.

It is possible that friends may put forward the Rev. Dr. George B. Stewart, president of Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y. Dr. Stewart was defeated also last year. Because the three nominees at Rochester—Drs. Stevenson, Stewart and Steffens—all have names which begin with "st," they have been known ever since as "The Three Saints."

Another question that is interesting Presbyterian leaders is who they shall elect to succeed the late Rev. Dr. William B. Noble, as permanent clerk of the assembly. Dr. Noble, whose home was in Coronado, Cal., died last summer. The office carries with it a salary of $150.

Of the many candidates for that position one is the Rev. Clarence G. Reynolds, pastor in Elizabeth, N. J.

There are many who are urging the merging of the office with that of the assistant stated clerk, the incumbent of which is the Rev. Dr. James M. Hubbert, who works the year around in the General Assembly's headquarters, in Philadelphia, under the Rev. Dr. William Henry Roberts, the stated clerk.

ADMISSION TO THEATER IS 100 DEAD FLIES

By United Press.

Bentonville, Ark., May 19.—The boys of Bentonville "don't need money" to see the movies here on Friday nights. The admission fee is 100 dead flies, or ten cents in cash.

A local movie magnate has posted a sign reading, "Admission, 100 Dead Flies," and it is making a hit. Every Friday night one hundred of the swatted corpses admit you to his theater. And then you can win five extra tickets for bringing in the largest number.

Bentonville citizens have taken to the novelty and indications are that flies will soon be an unknown quantity here.
